Civic advocacy often entails making visible the workings of erasure, allowing for a fuller assessment of the ideological functions of memory. Several projects will be introduced here that work to redress the operations of forgettability in public spaces, but prefaced in an unusual way: locating such extractions within certain constructions of psychical processes themselves.

Friday, March 16, 2018
12:00PM - 1:30PM
CHAT
48 Professors Row
Medford, MA 02155
Lunch provided
RSVP to cis@tufts.edu