A symposium co-presented by Tufts University Art Galleries and the Consortium of Studies in Race, Colonialism, and Diaspora in conjunction with the exhibition A Decolonial Atlas: Strategies in the Contemporary Art of the Americas on view through April 15th. RSVP to artgallery@tufts.edu.

MARCH 1, 2018

Curator Talk & Performance

6:00pm
Tisch Family Gallery, Aidekman Arts Center

Join us for a walk through of A Decolonial Atlas with Curator Pilar Tompkins Rivas, followed by Broadcast from a Serpent-Headed Spaceship, a multi-media performance-lecture by Anthony Romero (Professor of the Practice, SMFA at Tufts) and collaborator artist Josh Rios.

MARCH 2, 2018

Symposium

12:30–3:30pm
Light lunch will be provided (12:30–1:00pm)
Alumnae Lounge, Aidekman Arts Center

This interdisciplinary conversation with artists, curators, and scholars maps visual strategies across the Americas through the lens of decolonization. The discussions will be rooted in a sustained engagement with several works of art, drawing connections to the thematic components of the exhibition in environmental activism, resistant archives, and indigenous rights.

1:00-1:45pm
Conversation #1: Dislodging Time

Nina Gerassi-Navarro, Associate Professor of Latin American Literature and Director of Latin American Studies, Tufts
Adriana Zavala, Associate Professor of Art History and Director of the Consortium of Studies in Race, Colonialism, and Diaspora, Tufts
