Welcome to the Tufts University Choral Department! Our singers come from a wide variety of musical backgrounds and academic interests to build a joyful community, united by a love of choral singing.

ENSEMBLES

Concert Choir (Music 69)
This large choir performs major works with orchestra, including choral classics, new music and other styles including world music, folk, Broadway, and jazz. Rehearsals are Mondays and Wednesdays from 4:30-5:45p in Distler Recital Hall. Jamie Kirsch, conductor.

Chamber Singers (Music 70)
This smaller choir specializes in a cappella and chamber works from the Renaissance to today. Rehearsals are Mondays and Wednesdays from 3:00-4:15p in Distler Recital Hall. Jamie Kirsch, conductor.

Third Day Gospel Choir (Music 72)
The Gospel Choir is an ensemble of 180 voices performing works by traditional and contemporary gospel composers. Rehearsals are Fridays from 3:30-5:30p with sectional rehearsals scheduled at various times. David Coleman, conductor.

TOURING & RETREATS!
We are planning a domestic tour in January 2015. Details coming soon. Weekend retreats help build camaraderie and unity within the choirs.

PRIVATE LESSONS – ENSEMBLE SCHOLARSHIP
Students enrolled in an ensemble for credit with one semester of prior experience are eligible for a private study scholarship toward the cost of voice lessons.

TUFTS CHORAL AUDITIONS IMPORTANT INFO
(for information about Gospel Choir, please see the Music Dept audition board)

Audition dates
Wed, September 3 and Thursday, September 4 (*Note: You only need to sign up for one time; you may choose to audition for one choir, or both).

Audition sign-up
Please sign-up on the big music department bulletin board, adjacent to the office suite in the Granoff Music Center.

Audition requirements
• One short (2-3 minute) solo song: If accompanied, please provide a copy for the pianist. You may choose any style/genre. A simple song (“My Country ‘Tis of Thee” or “Happy Birthday”) is perfectly fine. If you do not have a song, don’t worry! You will be given something simple to sing.
• Vocalization: Range, intonation, flexibility.
• Ear exercises: Pitch memory, finding notes within a chord.
• Short sight-singing and rhythm-reading excerpts.

Audition results
Emailed by Thursday night, September 4, and will be ONE of the following:

1. YOU ARE ACCEPTED INTO THE TUFTS CONCERT CHOIR: Rehearsals begin Monday, September 8. You must enroll in Music 69, either for credit or non-credit. Please enroll online or bring an ADD form to the first rehearsal to be signed by Jamie Kirsch.

OR

2. YOU ARE ACCEPTED INTO THE TUFTS CHAMBER SINGERS: Rehearsals begin Monday, September 8. You must enroll in Music 70, either for credit or non-credit. Please enroll online or bring an ADD form to the first rehearsal to be signed by Jamie Kirsch.

*NOTE: Students enrolled in Chamber Singers are strongly encouraged to participate in Concert Choir.

OR

3. Due to limited space, some students may not be accepted to either group. These students will be given appropriate feedback, referred to other singing ensembles on campus, and encouraged to re-audition in the spring.
