Masters of Arts in Teaching Spanish

Whether you are new to the language, on your second year and considering a major, or already working on your Spanish major, you should know that Tufts University offers a Masters of Arts in Teaching of Spanish (for grades K-12)

Teaching is a truly rewarding career, and there is a high demand for Spanish Teachers in our area and across the US.

To know more about the program or hear about successful Tufts alumni please contact:

Prof. Juliana Berte
Department of Romance Languages
Liaison to the Department of Education for Spanish Teacher Certification
Juliana.Berte@tufts.edu
Olin Center Office 220