French Language Courses
Summer 2017

French 0001-Elementary French 1
Kerri Conditto Miller (Online)

This course introduces the fundamental grammatical structures and vocabulary of French. Through the development of basic language skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing, it promotes the practical use of language in a variety of social settings. Online lab work is required. Conducted in French. No prerequisites.

French 0002-Elementary French II
Kerri Conditto Miller (Online)

A continuation of French 001. The course advances the study of basic grammar structures, fosters the development of vocabulary, and broadens the range of situations in which the student can understand and impart information. Audio-visual materials provide the cultural context for linguistic activities. Conducted in French.

Prerequisite: French 001 or consent.

French 0003-Intermediate French 1
Nancy Kelly

A review and extension of French grammar and vocabulary with attention to developing all four skills: reading, writing, listening, and speaking. The course aims to foster fluency and the functional use of language. Class discussions will be based on conversations and short literary texts and readings about French society. Regular listening work, lab assignments and frequent compositions are required. Conducted in French. Prerequisite: French 002 or consent.
