Tufts University’s Office of Residential Life, Africana Studies and Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies are pleased to present

A Long Walk Home

Starring Tufts/SMFA Alum Scheherazade Tillet, Feminist Activist and Co-Founder and Director of A Long Walk Home

A Story of A Rape Survivor (SOARS) is a highly acclaimed multimedia performance that documents one woman's journey from trauma victim to survivor. The show uses poetry, music, dance and photography to educate, to empower, and to transform people to end college sexual assault.

The non-profit A Long Walk Home, Inc. was founded by Tufts/SMFA alum Scheherazade Tillet and her sister, scholar/artist Dr. Salamishah Tillet (University of Pennsylvania) in order to reach and mobilize young people to end violence against women and girls. They use performance art to explore the topics of sexual assault, advocacy, and healing.

Tuesday, April 11, 2017
7:00 p.m.—9:00 p.m.
Cohen Auditorium

A Long Walk Home's Performance is a part of Professor Orly Clerge's (Department of Sociology and Africana Studies) Creating Citizens: Exploring Inequality through Media Scholar in Residence series for Lewis and Harleston Hall.