Lecturer for Social Justice/Social Inequalities
Tufts University Medford, Massachusetts
Fall 2016

Lecturer for Social Justice/Social Inequalities for the Fall 2016 semester, which begins September 6, 2016. Class meets twice a week, days and times are negotiable. This course covers the field of social stratification and class inequality, with attention to not only the causes of inequality but also the means of addressing it. Doctorate or ABD in Sociology or a related field required; college-level teaching experience required. Candidates should submit a letter stating their qualifications for teaching the course, a curriculum vitae, a tentative syllabus, teaching evaluations from a recent and relevant course (if available), and two letters of reference to the attention of: John LiBassi, Department Administrator, Department of Sociology, Tufts University, Medford, MA 02155. John.libassi@tufts.edu. All application materials should be submitted via Interfolio at http://apply.interfolio.com/34315. Review of applications will begin on March 14, 2016, and continue until the position is filled. Tufts University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. We are committed to increasing the diversity of our faculty. Members of underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

Equal Employment Opportunity Statement

Tufts University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. We are committed to increasing the diversity of our faculty. Members of underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply. Tufts invites all interested and qualified candidates to apply for employment opportunities. If you are an applicant with a disability who is unable to use our online tools to search and apply for jobs, please contact us by calling Johny Lainé in the Office of Equal Opportunity (OEO) at 617.627.3298 or at Johny.Laine@tufts.edu. Applicants can learn more about requesting reasonable accommodations at http://oeo.tufts.edu.