

Classics Department/Archaeology Program

Minor Checklist

Must be submitted to Student Services, Dowling Hall, with a printed copy of your unofficial transcript.

Name _____ Student ID Number _____

Major _____ Date of Graduation (Mo/Yr) _____

Major Advisor _____

Minor Completed (See requirements on reverse), circle one:

Roman Archaeology (5courses) Greek Archaeology (5 courses)

Latin (5 courses) Greek (5courses)

Roman Civilization (6 courses) Greek Civilization (6 courses)

Courses Completed for Minor:

| Program/Course # | Title | Semester taken/to be taken | Grade (or in progress) |
|------------------|-------|----------------------------|------------------------|
| 1. _____ | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 2. _____ | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 3. _____ | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 4. _____ | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 5. _____ | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 6. _____ | _____ | _____ | _____ |

Student Signature _____ Date _____

Faculty Approval _____ Date _____

This form must be signed and submitted to Student Services, Dowling Hall with a printed copy of your unofficial transcript.

General Minor Requirements

- a. No more than two of these courses may be used for any other degree requirement.

- b. Students planning a minor in Greek Archaeology, Roman Archaeology, Greek Civilization, Roman Civilization, Greek or Latin should declare a proposed Minor as early as possible.

<http://students.tufts.edu/registrar/student-forms>

Greek Civilization

The Minor in Greek Civilization consists of six courses distributed as follows:

- a. Classics 31: Classics of Greece
- b. Classics 37: History of Ancient Greece
- c. Four other courses from the department selected in consultation with a faculty member, two of which must be at the 100 level. Students are encouraged to take Greek language courses; only Greek 7 and higher, however, can be used to fulfill the requirements of the minor.

Roman Civilization

The Minor in Roman Civilization consists of six courses distributed as follows:

- a. Classics 32: Classics of Rome
- b. Classics 38: History of Ancient Rome
- c. Four other courses from the department selected in consultation with a faculty member, two of which must be at the 100 level. Students are encouraged to take Latin language courses; only Latin 3 and higher, however, can be used to fulfill the requirements of the minor.

Greek Archaeology

The Minor in Greek Archaeology consists of five courses distributed as follows:

- a. Classics 27: Introduction to Classical Archaeology
- b. Classics 37: History of Ancient Greece
- c. Classics 31: Classics of Greece
- d. Classics 163: Aegean Archaeology
- e. Classics 164: Greek Art and Archaeology

Substitutions: Seminar courses in Greek History (CLS 185/186) or Greek Archaeology (CLS 187/188) may be substituted for CLS 31.

Roman Archaeology

The Minor in Roman Archaeology consists of five courses distributed as follows:

- a. Classics 27: Introduction to Classical Archaeology
- b. Classics 38: History of Ancient Rome
- c. Classics 32: Classics of Rome
- d. Classics 167: Tyrrhenian Archaeology
- e. Classics 168: Roman Art and Archaeology

Substitutions: Seminar courses in Roman History (CLS 185/186) or Roman Archaeology (CLS 187/188) may be substituted for CLS 32 and/or CLS 167.

Greek

The Minor in Greek consists of five courses distributed as follows:

- a. Three courses in Greek beyond Greek 2 of which at least two must be 100-level.
- b. Classics 31 or Classics 37 and a 100-level course in Greek literature, history or archaeology.

Latin

The Minor in Latin consists of five courses distributed as follows:

- a. Four courses in Latin beyond Latin 3 of which at least two must be 100 level.
- b. Classics 32 or Classics 38 or a 100-level course in Roman history, literature or archaeology.