Confucius Institute Summer Program at BNU

What We Do

BNU Confucius Institute Summer Program is sponsored by the Confucius Institute Headquarters. The goal of the program is to help participants improve their Chinese language skills and increase their understanding of Chinese culture. The program will offer intensive language training, lectures on Chinese culture, local excursions and long distance trips to places with cultural and historical significance.

Program Highlights

- 8 to 9 intensive language training sessions, 3.5 hours each
- Lectures and workshops on Chinese culture, such as history, and calligraphy
- 6 to 7 visits to natural and historic sights in Beijing
- Long distance trip to another city
- Chinese food and culture shows
- CI covers all program related expenses in China: room and board, tuition, transportation, visits, etc.

Eligibility

- Age 15 to 30
- Interested in Chinese language and culture;
- Good health condition for international travel;
- Willing to participate in all summer program activities and comply with the requirements and policies.

Dates:

August 12, to August 25, 2018

Email ci@tufts.edu if you are interested.