

Please complete this form in its entirety. You are also required to sign up for ENV99 in the fall semester (if your internship is in the spring or summer) or in the spring semester (if your internship is in the fall). If you are a senior completing your internship during your last semester, you may enroll in ENV 99 while you are doing your internship. All ENV 99 students are required to complete a poster of their work at the end of the internship (poster template can be accessed at the ENVS home page) and to present at our annual internship symposium.

Student name:

Year of graduation:

ENVS Track:

Dates of your internship (M/D/YYYY): From: _____ to: _____

Internship type:

Job title (e.g. farmer, outreach intern):

How did you find your internship?

Company information

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Company website: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip code: _____ Country: _____

Supervisor name: _____

Supervisor phone: _____

Supervisor email: _____

Please answer:

- Did the internship change your appreciation of the importance of an interdisciplinary approach when evaluating and/or seeking solutions to environmental issues? Yes No
- Did the internship teach you how one or more fields of science apply to complex environmental problems? Yes No
- Did you learn and apply a key method used in the environmental field? (e.g., GIS; remote sensing; systems analysis; statistics; research methods in the humanities, social sciences, or natural sciences; filmmaking, photography or other art forms) Yes No
- Did the internship improve your understanding of the importance of effective and targeted communication when addressing environmental issues? Yes No
- Did you incorporate views of diverse stakeholders in developing proposals for behavioral change? Yes No
- Did you work collaboratively to analyze and solve environmental problems? Yes No

For the benefit of other Environmental Studies students who might want to do an internship similar to yours, please answer:

1. Job description (What did you do?):

2. What did you like about it?

3. What did you dislike about it?

4. Other comments:

5. Would you recommend this internship to other Tufts Students? Yes No