“Historia de la presencia Mexicana en EEUU”

PRESENTER: TINO VILLANUEVA, PhD
Sr. Lecturer in Spanish, Boston University (Retired)

Thursday, October 11th, 2018
8:30AM-11:45AM
Laminan Lounge

Poet and painter Tino Villanueva was born in San Marcos, Texas to a family of migrant workers. He was drafted into the army and served for two years as a supply clerk in the Panama Canal Zone before earning a BA at Southwest Texas State University, an MA at State University of New York at Buffalo, and a PhD at Boston University. He is the author of several poetry collections, including Hay Otra Voz: Poemas (1972); Scenes from the Movie GIANT (1993), which won an American Book Award; and So Spoke Penelope (2013). The founder of Imagine Publishers, Inc., Villanueva has edited Imagine: International Chicano Poetry Journal and the anthology Chicanos: Antologia Historica y Literaria (1980). He has taught at Wellesley College and Boston University.

*Source: https://www.poetryfoundation.org/poets/tino-villanueva

The discussion will be in Spanish.